

DIG A LITTLE DEEPER

Social commentary, social change, profit over people, frustration, dissatisfaction, transformation, call to action, change the world

He drives on cracked and potholed freeways, only to be stuck in a cage

Swervin' in his lane, job and cell phone driving him insane.

Techno haze, big Telecom's craze, funding the next political campaign.

She wears a tinfoil hat, it's actually made of silver

She wears a tinfoil hat because it's not too soon to tell-

We'll be wearing them all the time in this wireless radiation hell.

PRE CHORUS- Whatcha gonna do? Whatchoo gonna do? What are we gonna do?

CHORUS When we drive on a parkway and we park in a driveway
And on a freeway, yeah yeah, hell yeah you're gonna pay a toll.
It's all mixed up, it's upside down, it's a tilt-a-whirl.
What are you gonna do if you wanna change the world?
Well close your eyes and be still, you know the rest is just a big disguise until...
We all together look inside and dig a little deeper, yeah

It's big business being born, it's big business when you die.

Big business all the days between controlling you and I.

Profit over people and planet, wake up before there's nothing left.

And mother if I told you, they birthed me and took me from you-

I remember, I remember and it's not supposed to be this way.

Drugs and schedules, timetables in a 9-5 Hospital business day.

PRE CHORUS Whatcha gonna do? Whatchoo gonna do? What are we gonna do?

CHORUS

When we drive on a parkway and we park in a driveway
And on a freeway, yeah yeah, hell yeah you're gonna pay a toll.
It's all mixed up, it's upside down, it's a tilt-a-whirl.
What are you gonna do if you wanna change the world?
Well close your eyes and be still, you know the rest is just a big disguise until...
We all together look inside and dig a little deeper, yeah.

Supersizing fast fries and little useless soundbytes,
Fill the mind up with static and then they medicate the masses.
Hypnotize them with advertising and make a war between the classes.
Line ups and let downs, so many celebrity breakdowns.
Virtual vision, television but we've got less inner vision.
Yesterday is built from tomorrow so today, you gotta be your own hero.

PRE- CHORUS

Whatcha gonna do? Whatchoo gonna do? What are we gonna do?
